2. Any team/player can arrange the time/date for each round.
3. There must be two weekend and 1 midweek date option given to the opposition. (Failure to provide weekend dates or contact the opposition will result in teams/players being removed from the competition)
4. No extensions will be given for any reason.
5. Any team can replace a player prior to their first round being played, after which time no replacements can be made.
6. If a team member is unavailable for any reason then the round should be played with the remaining team member playing against the other team.
7. As a last resort matches can be decided by toss of coin, 9 holes, etc. if agreed by both parties when both sides being unable to attend the full 18 holes.
8. Results must be entered into the computer immediately after your round is completed.

General Play Scorecards

1. General play rounds must be signed in online or on the computer prior to your round starting.
2. Once entered you will be required to enter the score into master scoreboard either by app or club computer prior to leaving the club as settings are in place to restrict entry away from the golf course.
3. Failure to enter a score after your round will result in a penalty score being entered into England Golf System automatically.
4. The club will not remove this penalty score from your record.
5. England golf have requested that persistent offenders who fail to enter scores when registered be suspended from competitions by their club which we will follow their instruction.
6. General play scorecards will not count as qualifiers for Knockout or Board Competitions.

Shot Gun Start and Restricted Entry Competitions

(Presidents Day & Turkey Trot)

Normally these competitions have a dinner and presentation held directly after the competition. These competitions are also restricted to entrants due to shotgun start format. Due to this situation anyone entering this competition will be expected to be present for the meal and presentation.

Captain: Philip Abbott Chairman: Mark Northern Secretary: Martin Bettison
Treasurer: Hans Bauder Vice Captain: Sachin Kanaiya Immediate Past Captain: John Hilton Competition Secretary: John White Scratch Team: Lee Bettison

Anyone who enters and does not attend the full event (Golf, Meal & Presentation) will not be allowed to enter the next shot gun/board event.

This decision has been made due to:

1. Restricted number of entry places
2. Club subsidising meals for none attendance
3. Winners failure to attend presentations
4. Enable all who want to support the whole event on the day to enter first.
